

Activities of Japanese Police Officers in Timor-Leste

The First Party of the International Peace Cooperation Corps to Timor-Leste has completed its six-month mission and returned safely this August.

The National Police Agency has dispatched another unit of 3 officers ( a Chief Superintendent, a Superintendent and an Inspector ) as the second party.

Arrival ceremony for the first party at the Narita Airport

Departure ceremony for the second party
at the Narita Airport

Chief Supt. TOMITA (right) and Supt. TSUTSUI

Meeting in the local liaison office

Chief Supt. TOMITA
in UNMIT headquarters

Supt. TSUTSUI with his colleagues in UNPOL headquarters