

C. Loan Sharks

Loan sharks came to be recognized as a serious social issue around 2002. The police are cracking down on loan sharks in accordance with the Program to Remedy Multiple Debt Problems. In addition, the police are requesting financial institutions to freeze bank accounts used by loan sharks and internet service providers to shut down websites advertising illegal money lending.

D. Intellectual Property Rights Violation

IPRs protection campaign in Akihabara

Violation of Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) continues to be an issue. Examples of IPR violation include distribution of illegally copied business software and music data over the internet using file exchange software, and transactions of counterfeit products on websites. Counterfeit products are mostly smuggled from China and other Asian countries.

The police investigate these cases and promote public awareness on IPR protection in cooperation with relevant ministries and organizations.

In addition, the police are cracking down on theft of trade secrets.

7. Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency and Sound Development of Youth

Note: The number of juveniles arrested includes not only juveniles arrested but also those against whom necessary investigations have been completed without detention; the same applies in this section below.

A. Juvenile Delinquency

Juveniles arrested for Penal Code Offenses

The total number of juveniles (aged 14 to 19) arrested for Penal Code offenses in 2019 was 19,914, a decrease of 3,575 (15.2%) from the previous year. The ratio of juveniles arrested for Penal Code offenses per 1,000 persons in the same age group was 2.9, decreasing 0.5 points from the previous year.

Among all the persons arrested² for Penal Code offenses (both adults and juveniles) in 2019, 10.3% were juveniles. And among all the persons arrested for street crimes such as snatchings and street muggings in 2019, 34.8% were juveniles.

B. Juvenile Victimization

(1) Penal Code Offenses Victimizing Juveniles

In 2019, 93,795 Penal Code offenses that victimized juveniles were known to the police, a decrease of 8.5% from the previous year. By category, felonies (murder, robbery, arson, and forcible sexual intercourse) stand at 838, an increase of 10.3%; violent offenses stand at 7,955, a decrease of 1.2%; and larcenies stand at 77,855, a decrease of 9.3% from the previous year.

(2) Offenses Harmful to Juvenile Welfare

Welfare offenses are crimes harmful to juvenile welfare such as sexual exploitation of children.

In 2019, a total of 5,678 juveniles were victimized by welfare offenses, an increase of 3.8% from the previous year. High school students topped the number of victims, followed by junior high school students.

The use of the internet in welfare offenses has become a serious issue. The police are strengthening crackdown efforts on internet-related welfare offenses in order to prevent further harm to children, and working to protect the juvenile victims of such offenses.

(3) Child Sexual Exploitation

Child Sexual Exploitation Awareness Poster

Child sexual exploitation is of grave concern to the international community in light of the protection of children's rights and development of youth.

In 2019, 696³ persons were arrested for child prostitution in 784 cases. For child pornography, 2,116⁴ persons were arrested in 3,059 cases, recording the highest numbers of both cases and persons arrested.

Child sexual exploitation continues to be serious. In view of this recognition, the "Basic Plan on Measures against Child Sexual Exploitation" was formulated in April 2017 at the Ministerial Meeting Concerning Measures Against Crime.

As the primary activities of the police, the plan includes strict measures such as strengthening crackdowns on crimes related to child sexual exploitation, development of comfortable environments for children and their parents/guardians for consultations, promotion of public relations and public awareness-raising activities to prevent victimization by child prostitution and child pornography, and measures against entities which operate social networking sites and online dating services. The police are promoting these countermeasures in cooperation with relevant institutions and organizations based on the plan.

² This includes not only persons arrested but also those against whom necessary investigations have been completed without detention; the same applies hereinafter.

³ This number includes not only persons arrested but also those against whom necessary investigations have been completed without detention.

(4) Child Abuse

Child abuse significantly infringes the rights of children and causes serious damages to their physical and psychological development as well as personality formation.

The police are making every effort to take appropriate measures to detect and protect victimized children at early stages of child abuse, while strengthening cooperation with the relevant organizations.

(5) Bullying

There were 203 incidents attributable to bullying in 2019, an increase of 51 (33.6%) from the previous year.

The police are striving to identify bullying cases early on through actions such as counseling activities for juveniles and school supporters’ visits to schools, and developing appropriate measures while keeping close communication with schools.

(6) Support for Juvenile Victims

Juvenile guidance officials provide continuous counseling services and other support to juvenile victims of crimes such as bullying and child abuse, for supporting their recovery from psychological damages.

C. Prevention of Juvenile Delinquency and Promotion of Sound Development of Youth

(1) Various Preventive Measures against Juvenile Delinquency

A scene of street guidance

The police, in cooperation with community juvenile police volunteers, are making every effort to detect juvenile delinquents at early stages and provide guidance in a timely manner through on-the-spot protection and street guidance activities in crime-prone areas like entertainment districts and arcades.

In addition, the police not only contact juveniles who are likely to offend again but support their recovery through counseling activities, home visits, participation in community services, etc. Furthermore, by raising awareness of the community about the factors of juvenile delinquency, the police endeavor to develop a trend toward supporting juveniles.

Furthermore, in order to enhance systematic and expert support for juvenile delinquents and their families, and to strengthen assistance to minors harmed by crimes, Juvenile Support Centers are established in each PPH as specialized organizations for juvenile support and guidance, staffed by juvenile guidance officials as the key figures.

Additionally, in order to protect juveniles against welfare offenses caused by the use of the internet and to promote sound development of the youth, the police promote efforts such as guiding juveniles who posted inappropriate messages on the internet that could induce child prostitution.

(2) Clearing up the Environment Surrounding Juveniles

In an effort to clean up the social environment to safeguard juveniles, the police, in cooperation with the community, relevant organizations and public authorities, are trying to apply appropriate measures to shut out the influences of Boryokudan and control the flow of harmful information by sex-oriented entertainment establishments.

As the internet environment for juveniles has deteriorated recently, the police are making efforts to clean up the internet through implementation of cyber-patrol and promotion of filtering, and requesting the internet industry to provide self-restriction and other measures to safeguard juveniles.

(3) Counseling for Juveniles

The Young Telephone Center is a service provided by the police that offers counseling for juveniles. It is staffed by experienced juvenile guidance officials and counseling specialists, who provide necessary advice and guidance to troubled juveniles. In 2019, the police handled 78,037 juvenile consultation cases.

D. International Cooperation (Countermeasures against Child Sexual Exploitation)

A collective action by the international community is necessary to counter sexual exploitation of children.

The NPA is exchanging information with foreign investigative authorities, arranging international cooperation in criminal investigation, and strengthening collaborative relationships through participating in the INTERPOL International Child Sexual Exploitation Database.

In December 2018, the NPA held "The 3rd Meeting of Specialist Group on Child Sexual Exploitation" by involving domestic and international institutions and organizations. At the meeting, the NPA introduced the national government's efforts against child sexual exploitation, and shared information with the relevant institutions and organizations in order to strengthen mutual cooperation.
